Says:

The traveler, who was asked by a clerical-looking fellow-passenger—whether or not he drank, may have been justified, before answering, in asking whether the question was an inquiry or an invitation. But my advice to you, sub, is "Let not opportunity slip between your fingers." Take it, whenever such a query is put to you, as a pressing invitation, provided, sub, that there is within convenient reach a supply of EAGLETS.

William A. Doyle, the well-known and highly respected attorney, would grace a seat on the Superior Court bench.

Albert G. Wheeler, the well-known financier and business leader, is one of the men who have helped make Chicago the great commercial city she is today.

James S. Hopkins, the able and highly respected attorney and Master in Chancery of the Federal Court, would make a splendid judge.

Judge Edward A. Dicker is being boomed by many Republicans for a seat on the Superior Court bench.

Former United States Senator Albert J. Hopkins, is universally respected and admired all over Illinois.

Edward J. Magerstadt, the popular Republican leader, and former City Collector, is strongly talked of for State Treasurer next year.

Ross C. Hall, the popular lawyer and Democratic leader, is in line for a good nomination next year.

Richard W. Clifford, whose grand record on the Circuit Court bench is known to everybody, would prove a winner on the Democratic Judicial ticket this fall.

Frank L. Childs, the popular attorney, is enjoying a good, healthy boom by his many friends for one of those Democratic nominations for Superior Court Judge.

County Attorney Gustav J. Tatge is strongly backed for nomination for Superior Court Judge on the Democratic ticket.

John T. Murray, the popular attorney who won such a splendid victory at the judicial primary a few years ago, is being strongly urged for one of those Democratic nominations for Superior Court Judge.

Q. J. Chott, the popular lawyer and former magistrate, is in line for nomination by the Republicans next year for Municipal Judge.

George K. Schmidt, the popular former alderman and county commissioner, would prove a winning Republican candidate for State Treasurer next year.

The many friends of Daniel L. Cruise will leave no stone unturned to place that able and deservedly popular lawyer on the Superior Court bench.

Albert G. Wheeler stands foremost among Chicago's ablest financiers and business men.

Judge Joseph H. Fitch has proven by his record to be the right man in the right place. His re-election is assured.

Fresh blood is needed on the municipal bench.

There are over four million unlicensed dogs in Chicago. This means a loss of $8,000,000 to the city in revenue. The number of new fire engines or of firemen and policemen who could be hired for this sum is easily computed.

The Thirty-fifth ward has in Alderman Irwin H. Hasen one of the ablest and most aggressive members of the city council.

James M. Slattery is making the best Superintendent of Public Service that Cook County has ever had. He is an able, hard-working and courteous public official.

Jacob M. Horn, the popular West Side furniture manufacturer, and former West Town Assessor, is being talked of for Sanitary Trustee next year.

Judge Marcus Kavanagh's record on the bench is so well known that his re-election next fall is assured.

L. D. Condee is strongly backed by Republicans all over the city for nomination for Superior Court Judge.
